Budgets for 1904-05.

In the case of the Departmental Budgets for 1903-04, many of them were first accepted provisionally and forwarded to the Comptroller for incorporation in the State Budget after orders from the Dewan through the Councillor in charge.

When the Budget of the Stamp manufacture Dept was submitted through the 2nd Councillor he remarked "Why not pass such Budgets once for all instead of provisionally". It was submitted that in the previous year, budgets except those noted in the margin were provisionally passed and sent to Comptroller, and orders were solicited whether the same course might be followed, as all the minor budgets would have to pass through Council if they had to be finally passed.

The Dewan's orders were as follows.-

" This Budget may be provisionally passed and intimation given to the Comptroller. Raise the question when each Budget, otherwise dealt with last year is submitted"

Subsequently, when the Excise Budget was submitted with the suggestion that it might be provisionally accepted, the 2nd Councillor remarked " I would sanction this Budget once for all instead of provisionally as proposed by the Secretary. The Budget was ordered by the Dewan for circulation for Council.

Then, the remaining budgets were passed in council as well as by His Highness before incorporation in the State Budget. Even those (about 16 in number) previously accepted provisionally were sanctioned finally and intimated to the Comptroller.
